Join First Congregational in raising $$ to feed the hungry in our community

Become a Hunger Walker by collecting funds from friends, neighbors, and associates. Then, walk on 9/28.

- OR -

Offer a personal donation and give that to any
First Congregational fundraiser / Hunger Walker.

Every $ that you collect or donate - to the penny, goes directly to vetted agencies for purchasing food to feed the hungry in Henderson Co.

In 2024 these are:

Blue Ridge Health Center
Calvary Episcopal Food Pantry
Community Food Pantry, Edneyville
Council on Aging / Meals on Wheels
Fishes & Loaves UMC, Etowah
Interfaith Assistance Ministry + Mobile Pantry
Hville Rescue Mission - 42k meals annually
Safelight, Inc., violence/abuse shelter+pantry
The Salvation Army - food boxes/groceries
The Storehouse - Food Pantry
St. Vincent De Paul Society

For more information, inquire of our FCC Hunger Walk 2024 Leader, Dennis Maloy - or any member of the FCC Service & Giving team.

Thank You!

New Rotating Artist on Display Cynthia Moser

Cynthia has been an artist her entire life. Since moving here, Cynthia has won awards in the Hendersonville Art League and has been a part of the downtown ArtScape Banner project five times; she also participates in the Open Studio Tour each year. Her art showcases her love of playing dark against lights to portray excitement and interest. All of Cynthia's art hanging in the FCCH gallery is available for purchase.

If you cannot tour art at the church, there will be a different picture every week in our email reflecting Cynthia's art so that you can see it virtually.

Hand crafted necklaces & pendants

by Catherine Fairbanks.

Available during
Coffee Hour

Proceeds go to The Hunger
Walk.
